

Archbishops' APPEAL for Zimbabwe

The deteriorating political situation in Zimbabwe is being accompanied by the worst humanitarian crisis the country has seen since independence.

Many have died from cholera, starvation and HIV. A breakdown of basic civil infrastructure has slowly been destroying a nation and causing unimaginable suffering. But while the government is failing, churches are struggling to feed the hungry and heal the sick. They are suffering alongside their communities, and they need our support.

We, the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, urge you to support this appeal.

The Archbishops' Zimbabwe Appeal is being administered on behalf of the Archbishops of Canterbury and York by USPG: Anglicans in World Mission.

Anglicans in World Mission

Please support the Anglican dioceses and parishes in Zimbabwe as they desperately try to witness to God's love and address mounting practical needs.

Archbishops' APPEAL for Zimbabwe

We make this call to you, in the Church of England, in response to the statement made by all the Anglican Archbishops from across the Communion, who spoke out on the injustice and suffering in Zimbabwe. How can any of us be silent when one part of the body is suffering?
