

5 – 11 FEBRUARY 2010
ARCHBISHOPS APPEAL FOR ZIMBABWE
PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBITION

Southwark Cathedral will be hosting an exhibition of photographs to mark one year since the launch of the Archbishops' Appeal for Zimbabwe, in partnership with USPG – Anglicans in World Mission. The photographs capture the extensive work being done by the local church to feed the hungry, heal the sick and begin to provide long-term peace and stability for local communities in Zimbabwe.

Opening information

5 – 11 February 2010
South transept, Southwark Cathedral
Open daily (9am* – 6pm)

(*exhibition opens to the public at 2.30pm on Friday 5 February)

Please contact Isobel Owen at Lambeth Palace for more details - isobel.owen@lambethpalace.org.uk

For more information on the progress of the Appeal please see -
<http://www.archbishopofcanterbury.org/2654>

Anglicans in World Mission

